M.A. English, Semester-I (Online Mode)

Semester Examination 2023-24

Poetry-I

Paper Code : MEG-101

Time: 3 Hours

Max Marks : 75

(Write your roll No. on the top immediately on receipt of this question paper)

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry equal marks.

(15x5)

1. Critically discuss the characters of Monk and Prioresse from the Prologue to Canterbury Tales.

2. What is dissimilarity between 'first generation romantics and second generation romantics? Discuss any two romantics from both the periods.

3. What is Metaphysical poetry? Discuss John Donne as a metaphysical poet.

4. Discuss the defining features of Paradise Lost Book 1 as an epic.

5. How do the memories of communion with nature in childhood affect the poet's adulthood in the poem 'Tintern Abbey'? Discuss.

MA English, Semester I (ODL)

Semester Examination 2024-25

Paper: Poetry

Paper Code: MEG-101

Time: 3 Hours Maximum Marks: 75

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry equal marks.

1. Describe the indomitable will of Satan in John Millton's Paradise Lost.

2. What role does social satire play in the General Prologue, and how does Chaucer subtly criticize different classes and professions?

3. How does Chaucer establish the storytelling framework in the Prologue, and what effect does it have on the reader's expectations for the tales to follow?

4. What is Metaphysical poetry? Discuss John Donne as a metaphysical poet.

5. How does William Shakespeare explore the idea of love in his sonnets? Discuss with reference to the sonnets prescribed in your syllabus.

6. How does Donne use imagery and structure to elevate the personal experience of love into a universal truth?" Discuss this in reference to the prescribed poems.

7. In what way does the poem's structure—moving from "Had we but world enough…" to "But at my back I always hear…"—support its persuasive argument?

8. What role does the sublime play in Romantic poetry, and how is it expressed through imagery and tone?

Your Roll No. _____

M.A. English (Offline Mode)
First Semester Examination – 2023
Drama
Paper Code : MEG-102

(Write your Roll No. on the top immediately on receipt of this question paper)

Time: 3 Hours Max Marks: 75

Note: Attempt any five questions. All questions carry equal marks.

(15x5)

1. Write a detailed note on the salient features of Elizabethan drama.

2. Make a character sketch of Cleopatra from Antony and Cleopatra.

3. Compare and contrast court life and country life from your understanding of Shakespeare's As You Like It.

4. Explain how Beaumont and Fletcher's adherence to the royal court is visible through his play Philaster.

5. Discuss the double standard of Jacobean society on adultery while treating men and women with reference to A Woman Killed with Kindness.

6. What do you understand by heroic tragedy? Discuss its use by Dryden in All for Love.

7. Justify the title of the play The School for Scandal.

8. Discuss the major genres of Restoration Drama from your reading of the texts.

lineexam/public/student/start-exam-set/eyJpdiI6ImJEZHJyUnZDT1RJbzNxR1NIdWNINlE9PSI

Time: 3 Hours Maximum Marks: 75

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry equal marks.

1. In his "Conspectus of Dramatic Genres," Northrop Frye identifies tragedy, comedy, melodrama, and farce as structurally distinct yet interrelated forms. Discuss how Frye's schematic approach to dramatic genres challenges conventional literary classifications.
2. How does Samuel Bowles, in "Shakespeare's Elizabethan Audience", characterize the nature and expectations of Shakespeare's original audience, and how does this inform our interpretation of his plays?
3. Examine the interplay of political ambition and personal passion in Shakespeare's Antony and Cleopatra, and discuss its impact on the tragic trajectory of the play's central characters.
4. Discuss the role of pastoral setting in Shakespeare's As You Like It as a space for transformation, reflection, and the subversion of social norms.
5. What does A Woman Killed with Kindness show about the roles and expectations of women in early modern society?
6. In Philaster, Love Lies Bleeding, how do love and loyalty affect the characters' decisions and actions?
7. In All for Love, how does Dryden explore the theme of tragic heroism through the character of Antony?
8. How does Sheridan use satire in The School for Scandal to expose and criticize the social norms and values of 18th-century English society?

Search

MA English, Semester I (ODL)

Semester Examination 2024-25

Paper: 19th Century American Literature

Paper Code: MEG-103

Time: 3 Hours

Maximum Marks: 75

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry equal marks.

1. In what ways did writers such as Emerson, Thoreau, and Hawthorne use prose to critique or support prevailing social and political values of their time?

2. What impact does the repetition of the phrase "Ain't I a woman?" have on the tone and structure of the speech?

3. What significance does Emerson assign to nature as a source of knowledge and inspiration in the formation of the scholar's mind?

4. How does Whitman's use of free verse contribute to the emotional flow and meditative tone of the poem?

5. How does Irving use the character of Rip Van Winkle to comment on the changes in American society before and after the Revolutionary War?

6. How does Hawthorne use symbolism—particularly the scarlet letter "A"—to explore themes of sin, identity, and redemption throughout the novel?

7. How does Hawthorne use the Puritan setting and society to critique hypocrisy, judgment, and moral rigidity?

-103-19TH CENTURY A
eexam/public/student/start-exam-set/eyJpdiI6litqd0NoMVY5UDJTQ0xKVGZnRk0rNkE9PSIsInZh

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry equa marks.

1. Critically discuss the speech "The American Scholar" By Ralph Waldo Emerson.
2. Discuss "When Lilacs Last in the Dooryard Bloom'd" as a meditation on the theme of death.
3. The Scarlet Letter is a piece of historical fiction. Discuss.
4. How did 19th-century American prose reflect the nation's evolving identity, especially in relation to themes like individualism, democracy, and expansion?
5. How does Sojourner Truth use personal experience and rhetorical questions to challenge prevailing notions of race and gender?
6. How does Emerson define the ideal role of the American scholar, and in what ways does he challenge traditional European models of intellectualism?
7. In what ways does the poem serve as both a personal elegy and a national mourning for Abraham Lincoln's death?
8. In "Hope is the thing with feathers," how does Dickinson personify hope, and what imagery does she use to highlight its resilience?

Search
HUAWEI

M.A. English Semester I Examination 2022-23
Paper IV
Indian Writing in English

Time: Three hours Max. Marks: 75

Answer Five questions in all, attempting at least One from each Unit.
All questions carry equal marks.

Unit 1

Q 1. What is your response to the representation of caste and gender in Kanthapura?
Q 2. Discuss Amitav Ghosh's In An Antique Land as a postcolonial novel.

Unit 2.

Q 3. Comment on the use of metaphors in the prescribed poems of Meena Alexander.
Q 4. Discuss elements of Modernism in the poetry of Nissim Ezekiel.

Unit 3

Q 5. How does Ramanujan compare the Indian way of thinking with the Western way of thinking?
Q6. How does Nayantara Sahgal problematise the idea of identity in the prescribed essay.

Unit 4

Q 7. Discuss Dattani's engagement with gender and communal conflicts in Post-Partition India in the play Final Solutions?
Q 8. Critically comment on the title of the play Final Solutions.

A =119
B =08

M.A. English, Semester-I (Offline Mode)
Semester Examination 2023-24
Indian Writing in English
Paper Code : MEG-104

Time: 3 Hours Max Marks : 75

(Write your roll No. on the top immediately on receipt of this question paper)

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry equal marks. (15x5)

1. Discuss the Gandhian philosophy explored in the novel Kanthapura by Raja Rao.
2. What happened to the Indian slave boy Bomma after he left Indian with his master Abraham Ben Yiju?
3. Analyze Mahesh Dattani's exploration of the theme of communal disharmony in Indian through his Final Solutions.
4. Critically analyze Meena Alexander's poem 'House of A Thousand Doors' as a postcolonial poem.
5. Conduct a feminist reading of Kamala Das' poems from your syllabus.
6. From your reading of 'The Night of the Scorpio', explore the theme of fellow feeling in Indian society.
7. What is the major argument in Nayantara Sahgal's 'Some Thoguhts on the Puzzle of Identity'?
8. What are the three ways to deal with the question 'Is there an Indian way of thinking', according to A K Ramanujan? Discuss.

A = 119
B = 8

M.A. English, Semester-I (Offline Mode)
Semester Examination 2023-24
Indian Writing in English
Paper Code : MEG-104

Time: 3 Hours

Max Marks : 75

(Write your roll No. on the top immediately on receipt of this question paper)

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry equal marks. (15x5)

1. Discuss the Gandhian philosophy explored in the novel Kanthapura by Raja Rao.
2. What happened to the Indian slave boy Bomma after he left Indian with his master Abraham Ben Yiju?
3. Analyze Mahesh Dattani's exploration of the theme of communal disharmony in Indian through his Final Solutions.
4. Critically analyze Meena Alexander's poem 'House of A Thousand Doors' as a postcolonial poem.
5. Conduct a feminist reading of Kamala Das' poems from your syllabus.
6. From your reading of 'The Night of the Scorpio', explore the theme of fellow feeling in Indian society.
7. What is the major argument in Nayantara Sahgal's 'Some Thoguhts on the Puzzle of Identity'?
8. What are the three ways to deal with the question 'Is there an Indian way of thinking', according to A K Ramanujan? Discuss.

Your Roll No. _____

M.A. English (Offline Mode)
First Semester Examination – 2023
Popular Fiction
Paper Code : MEG-105

(Write your Roll No. on the top immediately on receipt of this question paper)

Time: 3 Hours Max Marks: 75

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry equal marks. (15x5)

1. Discuss the historical development of Popular Fiction as genre.
2. Write a note on romance as a genre.
3. Discuss the relationship between humour and romance in Helen Fielding's novel Bridget Jones's Diary?
4. Discuss the constituent elements of thriller as a genre.
5. Critically discuss the plot of Ian Fleming's Casino Royal.
6. Critically describe the idea of Children's Literature as genre with reference to the relevant books you have read.
7. Critically discuss the use of literary symbolism, Imagery, and motif in J K Rowling's Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone.
8. Write a critical summary of Felicity A. Hughes's essay "Children's literature: Theory and Practice" prescribed in your syllabus.

A = 118
B = B = 08

M.A. English, Semester-I (Offline Mode)
Semester Examination 2023-24
Popular Fiction
Paper Code : MEG-105

Time: 3 Hours Max Marks : 75

(Write your roll No. on the top immediately on receipt of this question paper)

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry equal marks. (15x5)

1. Critically discuss Christopher Pawling's 'Introduction: Popular Fiction: Ideology or Utopia?'

2. Discuss the historical overview of romance as a literacy genre.

3. Critically discuss Bridget Fowler's essay 'Understanding the Romance: The Origins and Structure of a Major Mass Culture Genre'.

4. Discuss Ian Fleming as a popular fiction writer.

5. Critically discuss Jerry palmer's essay 'Thrillers' prescribed in your syllabus.

6. What are the major constituents elements of Children's Literature? Discuss with relevant examples.

7. Write a critical summary of Felicity A. Hughes's essay "Children's literature: Theory and practice' prescribed in your syllabus.

MA English, Semester I (ODL)

Semester Examination 2024-25

Paper: Popular Fiction

Paper Code: MEG-105

Time: 3 Hours Maximum Marks: 75

Note: Attempt any five of the following questions. All questions carry eq marks.

1. How does genre fiction challenge or reinforce cultural norms and values?
2. Analyze how J. K. Rowling—a popular fiction author —subverts or adheres to genre conventions in her novel—Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone.
3. Analyze the portrayal of gender in Helen Fielding's Bridget Jones's Diary.
4. In his essay, "Popular Fiction: Ideology or Utopia," Christopher Pawling calls popular fiction as "paraliterature." What is "paraliterature?" Why are the adherents of the ideology of Frankfurt School particularly against this form of "literature?"
5. Children's Literature functions are as a repository for heteropatriarchal, conservative ideas, especially because it allows the inculcation of said ideas at a young age." Do you agree with the statement? Use any work of children's literature to answer.
6. How does Fleming construct masculinity through the character of James Bond, and how does this reflect post-war British anxieties?
7. Felicity Hughes says that children's literature is written by adults who want to inculcate ideas about how society works, in them, so that they become better citizens later. Is this the same argument as that of the Marxists?
8. Why is reading a work of popular fiction looked down upon when Literary products aren't themselves outside the action of the forces of the market?